INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS

The Voter MUST NOT use the X mark. He should mark the figure I opposite the ques, the hole of wishes to become law. He should then mark the figure 2 opposite the question the would select us second choice, the figure 1 opposite his third choice, the figure 1 opposite his third choice, the figure 1 opposite his three choice, the figure 1 opposite his three choice, the figure 1 opposite his ballet, or he may vote for only two or only tw only three choices.

Voters are raged, however, to vote the full extend of their four choices. There is always the possibility that the question of his first choice will not carry. In that case he should have a second choice, and a third choice and a fourth about. Only by marking the full number of choices does the voter obtain the full beareful of the preferential ballot, and the government obtain a complete expression of the cylindon of the people.
